

The New Series

Of Moroccan Banknotes

200 Dirhams Banknote

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Technical features

Measurements : 151 x 70 mm
 Watermark :
 Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI and the number «200»
 Windowed security thread :
 Three - dimensional dynamic effect

Artistic features

The banknote highlights the industrial and economical development under the aegis of His Majesty King Mohammed VI.
 Theme : Infrastructure, Industry and Development
 Dominant Color : Blue

Obverse of the Banknote

- Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI
- Coat of Arms of the Kingdom
- Architectural detail inspired from Moroccan portals
- Representation of the bridge "Mohammed VI"

Reverse of the Banknote

- Stylized views of the "Mohammed VI" Tower and the International Airport "Marrakech-Menara".
- Patterns symbolizing development of industry and digital in Morocco.

MAIN SECURITY FEATURES

WINDOWED SECURITY THREAD

Three-dimensional dynamic effect, with the inscriptions of « 200 », "DH" and the star with five branches.

WATERMARK

Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI and the number « 200 »

COLOR-SHIFTING INK

The number « 200 » printed with optically variable magnetic ink that changes the color depending on the observation angle

SEE THROUGH FEATURE

When the banknote is held against the light, the elements printed on both sides match perfectly to form the entire of number « 200 »

TYPOGRAPHY

Typography printed with progressive characters and special inks

RELIEF PRINTING

Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI
 The inscription « بنك المغرب »
 The value « 200 » in numbers and in arabic letters
 Coat of Arms of the Kingdom

LATENT IMAGE

Viewed from a razing angle, the apparent star tilts to the hidden number « 200 »

TACTIL

Four five-pointed stars printed in intaglio with a tactile relief to help the visually impaired identify the banknote

MICRO-TEXTS

Micro-texts are printed on several areas of the banknote, visible with a magnifying device

OBVERSE OF THE BANKNOTE

REVERSE OF THE BANKNOTE

