Economic integration
in Africa:

The path to a more prosperous future

Submission deadline: March 24, 2024
Submission email: jimfmaroc@gmail.com
Notification of acceptance: April 05, 2024
Conference dates: May 22-24, 2024
Conference venue: Palais des Congrès, Dakhla, Morocco

Bank Al-Maghrib, Cadi Ayyad University of Marrakech (The Research Laboratory for Innovation, Responsibility and Sustainable Development - INREDD) and the Bernoulli Center for Economics (BCE) of the University of Basel, in collaboration with Dakhla Oued Eddahab Regional Council, are pleased to invite you to contribute to the 5th edition of the International Days of Macroeconomics and Finance. The event will take place from May 22 to 24, 2024 at the Palais des Congrès in Dakhla. The aim of this event is to promote a constructive exchange between researchers and decision-makers, and to formulate recommendations on critical economic policy issues.

Paper submissions should be in the fields of macroeconomics and finance. Both empirical and theoretical papers will be considered. Preference will be given in this edition to papers on the theme of “Economic integration in Africa: the path to a more prosperous future”, with clear policy recommendations. The choice of this theme aims to explore challenges and opportunities of economic integration in Africa. The aim is to stimulate debate on economic integration in Africa, and to formulate recommendations for further strengthening this integration, while promoting prosperity and sustainable, inclusive development on the continent. The main themes to be addressed include:

1. Opportunities and challenges of African economic integration ;
2. Progress and challenges of the African Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) ;
3. International experiences of economic integration ;
4. Technologies, Research and Innovation as levers for African integration ;
5. Territorial development and African economic integration ;
6. Contributions to regional and global value chains ;
7. Development and sharing of regional infrastructures ;

8. Climate change and economic integration ;
9. Industrialization and the role of the private sector ;
10. Financial integration and development of payment systems and means ;
11. Regional food and energy security.

Submission of proposals

The deadline for submission of the full papers is March 24, 2024. Interested authors are requested to send their papers in electronic form to the following address: jimfmaroc@gmail.com. Authors of submitted papers will be informed of the decision of the scientific committee by April 5, 2024. Papers may be presented in French or English. Selected papers will be posted on the conference web portal.

Participation fees

No participation fees are considered by the organizers. The organizing committee will cover the travel, accommodation and catering expenses of one author for each selected paper.
