

Regional seminar

“SYSTEMS AND MEANS OF PAYMENT”

(January 31 - February 1, 2017)

As part of cooperation with central banks and international financial institutions in the field of training, Bank Al-Maghrib organized a seminar on “Systems and means of payment” in collaboration with the Banque de France International Banking and Finance Institute, at Al-Irfane Training Center in Rabat from January 31 to February 1, 2017.

This training seminar, intended for staff responsible for overseeing the systems and means of payment, aimed to present the latest developments in this field. It featured roundtables in which participants discussed aspects related to payment systems and infrastructures as well as means of payment and related innovation.

The presentations were given by two experts from Banque de France, in collaboration with representatives of Bank Al-Maghrib. Participants were invited to present their own experience in this area.

This event brought together staff members from Central Bank of Madagascar, Central Bank of The Comoros, Central Bank of Republic of Guinea, Bank of Central African States, Central Bank of West African States, Central Bank of Mauritania, Central Bank of Tunisia and Central Bank of Jordan, as well as some twenty participants from Bank Al-Maghrib.