Bank Al-Maghrib publishes a new research paper

Rabat, May 3rd, 2021

Bank Al-Maghrib released, on May 3rd, 2021, a new research paper entitled "The Morocco Policy Analysis Model: Theoretical Framework and Policy Scenarios". This paper analyses the long-term effects of fiscal consolidation and other tax reforms under the last Precautionary and Liquidity Line approved in December 2018 and provides an early assessment of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic in Morocco. Available in the Publications and Research section, on the Bank's website, the paper was produced jointly by researchers from Bank Al-Maghrib and the International Monetary Fund. It was carried out as part of the permanent collaboration between the Bank and the Fund.
