

The New Series Of Moroccan Banknotes

100 Dirhams Banknote

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Technical features

Measurements : 144 x 70 mm
Watermark :
Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI and the number « 100 »
Windowed security thread :
Color-shifting with dynamic effect

Artistic features

The banknote illustrates the cultural heritage of the Moroccan Sahara, its socio-economic development, and its openness to Africa
Theme :
The Sahara and its openness to Africa
Dominant color : Brown

Obverse of the Banknote

- Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI
- Coat of Arms of the Kingdom
- Architectural detail inspired from Moroccan portals
- Stylized arcades of Hassan II Mosque in Casablanca

Reverse of the Banknote

- Stylized view of « Place of Mechouar » in Laayoune and Tiznit Dakhla expressway, symbols of Morocco's southern provinces infrastructure development and the openness to Africa
- TAN-TAN Moussem traditional festivities

MAIN SECURITY FEATURES

WINDOWED SECURITY THREAD

Color-shifting with dynamic effect of the inscriptions « 100 » and « DH » in alternation and the five-pointed star in addition to the number « 100 » demetallized

WATERMARK

Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI and the number « 100 »

COLOR-SHIFTING INK

The number « 100 » printed with optically variable magnetic ink that changes the color depending on the observation angle

TYPOGRAPHY

Typography printed with progressive characters and special inks

RELIEF PRINTING

- Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI
- The inscription « بنك المغرب »
- The value « 100 » in numbers and in arabic letters
- Coat of Arms of the Kingdom

LATENT IMAGE

Viewed from a razing angle, the apparent star tilts to the hidden number « 100 »

OBVERSE OF THE BANKNOTE

TACTIL

Three five-pointed stars printed in intaglio with a tactile relief to help the visually impaired identify the banknote

SEE THROUGH FEATURE

When the banknote is held against the light, the elements printed on both sides match perfectly to form the entire number of « 100 »

MICRO-TEXTS

Micro-texts are printed on several areas of the banknote, visible with a magnifying device

REVERSE OF THE BANKNOTE