

The New Series

Of Moroccan Banknotes

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Technical features

Measurements : 130x70 mm Watermark : Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI and the number «20» Windowed security thread :

Color-Shifting with dynamic effect

Artistic features

The 20 Dirhams note highlights the richness of the architectural heritage and the socio-cultural development of our country

J004000000 (

- 44

*

20

Theme: Culture, Art, Youth and Sport

Dominant Color: Purple

Obverse of the Banknote

- Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI
- Coat of Arms of the Kingdom
- Architectural detail inspired from Moroccan portals
- Stylized view of "AI Quaraouiyine" University in Fez

0

0 0

0

Reverse of the Banknote

- Artistic repesentation :
- The Great Theatre of Rabat
- "Mohammed VI" Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art - Sport infrastructure
- Stylized views of the fibula and the Kasbah of "Aït-Ben-Haddou"

WINDOWED SECURITY THREAD

Color-Shifting with dynamic effect of the five-pointed star on an arabesque background and demetalized number «20»

WATERMARK

Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI and the number « 20 »

TACTIL One five-pointed star printed in intaglio with a tactile relief to help the visually impaired to identify the banknote

🚯 MAIN SECURITY FEATURES 🙀

TYPOGRAPHY

Typography printed with progressive caracters and special inks

2004000000

RELIEF PRINTING

 Portrait of His Majesty King Mohammed VI • The inscription « بنك المغرب »

- The value «20 » in numbers and in arabic letters
- Coat of Arms of the Kingdom

LATENT IMAGE

Viewed from a razing angle, the apparent star

SEE THROUGH FEATURE

When the banknote is held against the light, the elements printed on both sides match perfectly to form the entire number $\ll 20$ »

Micro-texts printed on several areas of the banknote, visible with a magnifying device

IRIDESCENT STIP

Stylized Moroccan arabesque strip with the number $\ll 20\, {\rm w}$ printed in special ink wich is cleary manifested once changing observation angle

f MuseedeBankAlMaghrib

& @BankAlMaghrib

Bank Al-Maghrib

